

George Inness, Jr. in Tarpon Springs

One of the great landscape painters of the early 20th century, George Inness, Jr. created an arts legacy in Tarpon Springs with eight mural size works painted for the Sanctuary at the Unitarian Universalist Church.

Historic, Welcoming Church

Founded in 1885. Still going strong.

Location: Corner of Grand Blvd and Read Street

Park around corner in Read St. lot or at Safford House Museum. Street parking allowed.

An Arts Legacy

Featuring the famous

George Inness, Jr. painting -

The Only Hope, 1924

Oil on canvas, 115 x 85 in.

This painting toured the nation in the 1920s following the devastation of World War I and was praised by President Calvin Coolidge as “a representation of wrath overcome by love”.

Unitarian Universalist Church of Tarpon Springs

230 Grand Blvd, Tarpon Springs FL 34689

Web: UUTarpon.Org

Call 727-937-4682 or Email: Admin@uutarpon.org

You are Invited

Special Veterans Day Showing

November 11

5:00 - 8:00 PM

Guest Speaker:

Lynn Whitelaw - Founding Director,
Leepa-Rattner Museum of Art

Program

“A Historical Perspective”

6:00

Tours of the Paintings

5:15 and 7:00

Light Refreshments

Free Admission—Welcome
Donations to Preserve the Paintings